

BENEFIT FUNDS OFFICE

The IAM National Benefit Funds Office welcomes new Executive Director, Yolanda D. Montgomery, J.D., LL.M. Yolanda brings with her an extensive career in benefits administration and compliance, including her most recent leadership experience with SEIU Benefit Funds as Assistant Executive Director and Counsel.

Yolanda is highly regarded as an expert in ERISA, labor, and employment matters, frequently lecturing and training on these topics throughout the country. She is a seasoned mediator and arbitrator of employment cases with the American Arbitration Association and serves on various associations and committees in the Washington metropolitan area. Yolanda received her B.S. in Psychology from Howard University; her J.D. from Texas Southern University, Thurgood Marshall School of Law; and her LL.M in Taxation from Temple University, James Beasley School of Law.

The Boards of Trustees of the IAM National Pension Fund, IAM National 401(k) Fund, and the National IAM Benefit Trust Fund warmly welcome Yolanda and anticipate continuous commitment to excellence in benefits administration under her leadership.
